

Welcome To Scottish Sound

The sounds of the Highland Bagpipe can set the tone of your special day, lending an authentic flair to the event. Bagpipes create an emotional and romantic atmosphere to your big day. Your wedding will become even more unique and memorable when your entrance is heralded by the welcoming sound of the pipes. Pipers have been entertaining guests at Weddings for centuries.

A native of Scotland, Ken Swinton delivers an authentic Scottish Sound. Ken has over 40 years experience of bagpipe playing. Dressed in his traditional kilted attire, your special event will be remembered for many years as he delivers the true Scottish Sound for your guests.

Scottish Sound is located in Spartanburg, South Carolina. Scottish Sound is pleased to provide services to Upstate South Carolina, Northern Georgia and Western North Carolina. Scottish Sound is not limited to this geographic area. We perform at weddings in Greenville, Spartanburg, Anderson, Greenwood, Asheville, Hendersonville, Columbia, and points in between. Please contact us by email or phone about your request. We enjoy travelling to all venues.

To get a better idea of what it might be like to have bagpipes at your wedding, take a look at our video.